

DREADFUL NEWS SEEMS TO BE TRUE

Reports That All Foreigners at Peking Are Dead Are Confirmed.

LAST HOPE IS GOING

Russian Army of 30,000 Men Advancing Upon Peking From the North.

EUROPE INTENSELY EXCITED

London, July 13.—[Special Cablegram]—The Central News asserts that an official message was received in London today announcing that all foreigners in Peking were murdered on July 6th. The foreign office, however, denies that any such message has been received.

News From Consul Goodnow, Washington, July 13.—[Special Telegram]—The state department at ten fifteen o'clock this morning received a bulletin from Consul Goodnow at Shanghai indicating that the worst has happened at Peking. The information is indefinite and comes through the governor of Shantung, who wires that the Boxers and soldiers were bombarding the legations for a final attack on July 7th. He is extremely anxious for the safety of the ministers.

Japanese Believe the Report.

London, July 13.—[Special Cablegram]—The Japanese embassy also claims that the Peking ministers were murdered on July 6th. The feeling grows that there is some truth in the statements. There are supposed to have been seven hundred foreigners in Peking, nearly all of them connected with the legations.

Confirms the Report

Shanghai, July 13.—It is reported that a Chinese merchant here has received a letter from Peking, dated June 30, saying the legations were demolished and that the foreigners had been killed.

MRS. CONGER. Wife of the American Minister to China.

It is announced from a good source that 30,000 Russians are marching on Peking from the north.

Loss Hope At Washington.

Washington, July 13.—[Special Telegram]—It is now a month since the state department has received word from Conger, minister at Peking. The last dispatch was dated June 12, and told of the serious condition of affairs and of the minister's desire for more guards to be sent. Since then an ominous silence has prevailed and hope has given way to fear that the most horrible butchery of modern times has occurred. The policy of the United States will be now first to reach Peking with an armed force and then to punish the offenders whether they are Prince Tuan or the Empress Dowager.

Russian Force Advancing

Moscow, July 13.—It is reported from Vladivostok that Gen. Linevitch, with a large army corps and a complete artillery brigade, is advancing on Peking.

The Russians place great faith in Gen. Linevitch, who is an officer of great experience and a skillful tactician. The troops he commands are well trained and seasoned.

The condition of affairs at Moukden is critical, but hopeful. The allies' position at Tien Tsai is regarded as hopeless.

From Chinese Official Sources

London, July 13.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail says the following story regarding the position of Peking emanates from Chinese official sources:

"The two remaining legations, the British and Russian were attacked in force on the evening of July 6, Prince Tuan being in command. The attackers were divided. Prince Tuan commanded the center, the right wing was led by Prince T'ai Yin and the left by Prince Yin Lin. The reserves were under Prince T'ai Yin.

All the Foreigners Dead

"The attack commenced with artillery fighting, which was severe and lasted until 7 o'clock in the morning, by which time both legations were destroyed and all the foreigners were dead, while the streets around the legations were full of the dead bodies of both foreigners and Chinese.

Prince Ching Is Killed

"Upon hearing of the attack Prince Ching and Gen. Wang Wen Shao went with troops to the assistance of the foreigners, but they were outnumbered and defeated. Both Prince Ching and Gen. Wang Wen Shao were killed.

CHINESE USING GERMAN GUNS

Over 400,000 Stacks of Arms Come into Celestial Empire

Washington, D. C. July 13.—Over 400,000 stacks of arms of German manufacture have been sent to China during the present year.

Information to this effect has been received by the authorities here through various channels of a secret service nature. Captain Mallory, who was sent as the military attaché to the American legation at Peking, with station at Hong Kong, is probably the principal source, though this will not be admitted by the War department authorities.

When the news was first received of these extensive shipments it was supposed the arms were intended for the Filipinos, and General MacArthur recommended that a number of officers be sent to China to cut off, if possible, this source of war supplies for the natives. Captain Mallory was the first officer selected for this duty.

Whether the 400,000 German rifles have found their way into the hands of the Chinese now engaged in the uprising is not definitely known. The arms were shipped to merchants in Hong Kong and various other points in China and it is presumed that they disposed of them where they could find a market.

CAN'T DISCREDIT ALL THE REPORTS

It Is Believed That the Worst Has Happened at Peking

London, July 13.—It is now apparently realized in Shanghai, as it certainly is here, that no authentic news has been received from Peking since June 24. All the reports issued since then through Chinese officials are regarded as discredited. The sensational newspapers here continue to print Shanghai gossip, but all of it is unconvincing, and it is frequently contradictory. The actual position at Tien-Tsin cannot be ascertained, and it is not known whether the expected reinforcements have arrived there. A correspondent at Tien-Tsin, dating his dispatch July 6, quotes a British officer of superior rank as describing the situation then existing as chaos, and adding: "We have wasted a week in politeness. It is time now that we did something." The correspondent declares that the Americans are particularly dissatisfied because they are represented by a very small force, although their interests are second to none, and he quotes an experienced American officer as saying: "They cannot realize at home that there has been more real fighting than in Cuba or the Philippines."

Hong-Kong, July 13.—Quietness continues along the West river. Missionaries are arriving at Fu Chow from all parts. When some of the missionaries left Te-King the Chinese were openly discussing placing a price on the heads of the Christians.

Russians Were All Slaughtered.

St. Petersburg, July 10 (via Paris, July 11).—The Russian legation at Peking, which is now believed to have been massacred, consisted of fourteen members. The mob pillaged the legation and burned the official archives. They also destroyed the Greek church attached to the legation and stole a large sum of money they found in the legation building. The Cossack guards were all slaughtered.

More News from Peking.

Chefoo, July 13.—A courier has arrived from Sir Robert Hart at Peking, bearing the message: "We are close to the end; good-by."

Dispatches received this morning add that Admiral Seymour has been wounded again.

Officials in Nankin declare positively that the emperor and empress are both dead and that all the foreigners in Peking have been killed, adding that all foreign buildings there were destroyed some time ago.

SERIOUS REVERSE TO BRITISH ARMS

LOSE A GARRISON OF 200 MEN WITH TWO BIG GUNS.

General Botha Captures Fortified Post Eighteen Miles from Pretoria—Fate of Four Hundred More in Doubt—Casualties May be Heavy—London is Shocked Again.

Pretoria, July 13.—[Special Cablegram]—Thirty survivors of Nital's Nek disaster of Wednesday, in which many of the Scots Greys were captured, straggled into Pretoria this morning and report the British losses very heavy. Reinforcements from Pretoria have stopped the Boer advance. Mahon has captured the Boer position near Rietfontein with small losses.

London, July 13.—Another serious reverse to British arms near Pretoria again revives the interest in the Boer war, which for the last fortnight has been in large measure forgotten on account of the anxiety over the Chinese situation.

The fortified point at Nital's Nek, where the Rustenberg railway passes through the Magaliesberg range, was surrounded and attacked by General Louis Botha on July 11, and the squadron of the Scots Greys, two guns of the horse artillery, and ninety infantrymen were captured.

Casualties Were Heavy.

In addition to these there were about 400 infantry holding the post, of whose fate nothing is known. The casualties, it is feared by Lord Roberts, will be heavy.

The reinforcements sent appeared too late. At Derdepoort and Krugersdorp there have been fighting in which the British were successful, but the Nital's Nek affair suggests the possibility that President Kruger is trying to make good his promise to recapture Pretoria which probably means another general uprising throughout the Transvaal and the Orange Free State. It is feared that Rustenberg, which is held by a small isolated force, will be the next to be captured.

Will Encourage Kruger.

The Times, commenting on the new turn of affairs, says:

"Notwithstanding that General Smith-Dorrien had the best of the fighting, it must be observed that the Boers have shown themselves in action in three separate places on the same time, and that at all three places were within a short distance of Lord Roberts' headquarters. This does not quite indicate the rapid progress which the more sanguine expected to follow the occupation of Pretoria. The action at Nital's Nek is to be regretted, not only on military but on general grounds, since it cannot but affect fresh encouragement to Kruger and his more determined followers."

PYTHIANS READY TO GO TO DETROIT

Wisconsin Delegation to the Encampment Last Week in August Will Number Over 400.

Milwaukee, July 13.—The Wisconsin delegation to the national encampment of the Knights of Pythias, which is held in Detroit the last week in August, will number about 400 persons. The Wisconsin contingent will collect in Milwaukee Sunday, August 26, and will leave for Detroit early Monday morning, arriving there Monday night.

The John Borglens company of the Uniformed Rank of Knights of Pythias of Eau Claire, which has for two years carried off the prize at the national encampment as the best drilled company, will arrive in Milwaukee Saturday and will on Saturday afternoon give an exhibition drill at the Milwaukee ball park. The company will be accompanied by the brigade band which will furnish music for the occasion. In addition to going through the evolution which it will give in the prize drill, the company will also present some fancy drills as well as an exhibition sword drill.

It has not yet been decided what route the Knights will take to Detroit, but Gen. Frank Barry said this morning he thought probably one of the lake routes would be taken.

Chicago, Ill., July 13.—Judges and lawyers from all parts of the state gathered here yesterday for the twenty-fourth annual meeting of the Illinois Bar association. Judge Benson Wood of Effingham presided. John B. Cassoday, chief justice of Wisconsin's supreme court read an elaborate address on John Marshall. Many other Wisconsin jurists were present, and all are supporting the movement to make February 4, 1901, a day of general observance in honor of Chief Justice John Marshall.

FUSION TICKET IN NEBRASKA IS NAMED

THE THREE SILVER PARTIES AGREE ON CANDIDATES.

One Set of Electors—Populists Resent the Refusal to Endorse Towne and Present an Ultimatum Which Brings the Democrats to Their Knees.

Lincoln, Neb., July 13.—The fusion ticket is finally agreed upon by the fusion state conventions after almost continuous sessions for twenty-six hours:

For Governor.....William A. Poynter, Pop. For Lieutenant Governor.....E. A. Gilbert, S. R. For Secretary of State.....C. V. Scholten, Pop. For Treasurer.....S. B. Howard, Pop. For Attorney General.....Willis D. Oldham, Dem. For Auditor.....H. S. Griess, Pop. For Land Commissioner.....P. H. Carey, Pop. Such a wrenching as the fusion machine received yesterday has never before been experienced. Threats, charges and recriminations passed back and forth, with a total disregard for after effect, and the wheels were only put on the track finally by main force.

Populists Present Ultimatum

"If you don't take what we offer you," threatened M. F. Harrington to the democrats after he had been delegated by the populists to carry the ultimatum, "I will carry it up to Bryan himself, and you may be sure he will settle it for you according to our way of thinking."

The Harrington proposition was for an equal division of the electoral ticket, giving the silver republicans the lieutenant governorship, the democrats one place on the state ticket to be selected by themselves, and reserving the rest for the populists.

Recent Refusal to Endorse Towne.

The original demand of the democrats was for two places on the ticket—State treasurer and attorney general. The free silver republicans asked for lieutenant governor and this was granted, but the populists promptly notified the democrats that as the price of their folly in refusing to nominate Charles A. Towne at Kansas City they must expect nothing more in this state than has heretofore been given them—attorney general.

Then the democrats declared through their spokesman and by speeches on the floor they would have the two offices or nothing, and as a final earnest of their disregard of results, a motion was put to adjourn until next November. The populists laughed at these antics and firmly stood their ground.

Then came the opportune adjournment, subsequent conferences, surrender of the democrats, and peaceful ending.

MILWAUKEE ROAD AGENT HELD UP

Masked Men Bind and Gag P. H. Hartwick at Lone Rock, Wis., and Rob Office of $40.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 13.—A hold robbery was committed at Lone Rock, a little station on the Prairie du Chien division of the Milwaukee road last night. The victim was P. H. Hartwick, the station agent at that point. Hartwick was sitting in his office, which is in the passenger station, located at an isolated point, when two masked men entered.

One covered the agent with a revolver, the other overpowered Hartwick, bound his arms and legs, and placed a gag in his mouth. While the man with the revolver stood over the agent his companion ransacked the office. After the desperadoes had finished their work they carried the agent to a refrigerator car standing on the side track, near the depot, and left him, bound and helpless. The agent remained there an hour and a half, unable to free himself, until a passenger train arrived. Search was made for the missing agent, and he was finally discovered in the refrigerator car. The thieves secured $40.

YOUNG METHODISTS OPPOSED TO CHANGE

Vote Solidly at a Meeting of Epworth League Against Dancing and Card Playing.

Peoria, Ill., July 13.—The important business of the third day's proceedings of the biennial convention of the Epworth league was the declaration of the young Methodists, 2,500 in number, who were present at the morning session, that they were opposed to any change in the church discipline so far as the removal of the ban on card playing and dancing is concerned.

Dr. Berry brought the subject up. He made a brief reference to the subject and the efforts to secure a change, removing the bans, and asked those opposed, to rise. All of them did so. Dr. Berry insisted that the change was desired only by a few old people desirous of marrying their daughters into society.

Mount Carmel was selected at the morning session as the next place of meeting two years, hence by a unanimous vote.

NO GOLD DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Committee Only to Issue a Proclamation Against Free Silver.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 13.—Leading members of the gold democratic party here are not in favor of a separate ticket for this campaign. It is likely that the national committee will simply issue a proclamation against the free silver idea and the candidates of the Kansas City convention, and reaffirm the principles of the platform adopted at the sound money convention held here four years ago, and then adjourn.

INDIAN OUTBREAK FEARED

Braves' Orgies at Pryor Gap, Mont., Considered Ominous

Billings, Mont., July 13.—For the last few days 2,000 Crow Indians have been dancing at Pryor Gap and it is feared their orgies may be turned into a war dance. They have built a bower, under which the braves, gayly painted, dance daily.

The Pryor Indians have loaded down the visiting redskins from the Little Big Horn and Big Horn rivers with presents, including horses, wagons and blankets. The total value of them is estimated at $6,000.

Whites have gone out to watch the orgies have been treated ominously, though left unharmed. The government authorities will probably take steps to stop the dancing, as it is against regulations and might lead to serious consequences.

ENGINEERS FIGHT FOR HIGHER WAGES

Proposed Strike on Wisconsin Threatens to Interfere With Summer Resort Hotel.

Chicago, July 13.—An impending strike on the Wisconsin Central system threatens to interrupt the summer resort travel to northern pineries and lakes just at the time when the road is enjoying its most lucrative passenger traffic of the year. Officials are wearing long faces and heads of families who have received warnings of the possible tie-up are hastening their packing to reach their summer homes in advance of the rail blockade.

Engineers and firemen have made demands for increases in wages on several of the important runs. A preliminary conference between the officials of the road and representatives of the men has been held, but no result satisfactory to the latter was had. Another meeting will be held in Milwaukee tomorrow to further discuss the grievances of the men. In Waukegan, where the shops are located, it is reported that the men are determined that the requests for higher wages shall be granted.

In the Wisconsin town it is further stated that there has been a great deal of dissatisfaction for the past year and lately the trouble has been coming to a head. The men want a mileage and tonnage system of running the road and refuse to compromise at anything this side of it. The trains which have been pulled over the road for some time, it is claimed, are too heavy.

A number of men engaged here say they expect some aid from the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and a conference will be held by some of the leading members at Milwaukee this week. If the road should be tied up it will result disastrously for all places located along the line.

INDIAN OUTBREAK FEARED BY WHITES

Members of Warlike Tribe Gathering in Large Numbers and Participating in a War Dance.

Solway, Minn., July 13.—Late reports from Red Lake say that the Blanket Indians are congregating in large numbers and an outbreak is feared. They have secured liquor and the war dance is going on. The reds are excited by young bucks from the White Earth reservation who claim to have an inspiration that all the whites are doomed to perish or become the slaves of their red brothers.

White settlers are making preparations for a siege. Indian Agent Mercer has gone to pacify the Indians. These Indians are the remnants of a warlike and savage tribe.

The friendly Indians on the reservation have promised their support to the whites in case of an uprising. Hawk Eye is the name of the White Earth Indian inciting the Blankets to trouble. The Indians believe he has a charmed life and he styles himself a great medicine man.

Stevenson will be formally notified of their selection as the presidential and vice presidential nominees of the democratic party on Wednesday, August 8 at Indianapolis, Ind. Information to this effect was received by Representative Richardson of Tennessee, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign committee, today from Senator Jones, the national chairman. Mr. Richardson will make the speech of notification to Mr. Bryan and Governor Thomas of Colorado, that notifying Mr. Stevenson. It is expected that the notifications will be made the occasion of a large popular demonstration.

Perry Heath Will Design

Perry S. Heath, now first assistant postmaster general, will soon announce his retirement from that position. He has decided to give his entire time and attention to the work of the campaign. He will accept the post as secretary of the republican national committee as successor to Congressman Dick, who will manage the campaign in Ohio.

Stewart Returns to Field

Senator Stewart of Nevada has been restored officially to good fellowship in the republican party. He has refrained from speaking on the silver question since his re-election, and now one of his speeches has actually been put in circulation by the Republican National committee. Two years ago it would have been impossible to pick out a printed page of any of Stewart's speeches which did not refer to the crime of '73, of which phrase Stewart was the author. Now he and silver have only a bowing acquaintance and don't speak as they pass by.

Headquarters at Chicago

Chicago, July 13.—According to Thomas Gahan, member for Illinois, the democratic national committee again will have campaign headquarters in the Auditorium Annex. The matter of securing suitable accommodations was turned over to him and D. J. Campau of Michigan, with power to act.

Chairman Jones left last evening for Lake Minnetonka to rest until the preliminaries are completed. It is said that he will not take as active a part in the campaign as four years ago.

HER BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Corpse Discovered at Marshalltown Gives Evidence of Foul Play

Marshalltown, Iowa, July 13.—The body of an unidentified woman was found in the Iowa river near here today by fishermen. The body evidently had been in the water for two weeks, as it was badly decomposed.

Bruises give strength to the theory of foul play. The woman was apparently forty-five or fifty years of age, with long, gray hair, had been well dressed in black cashmere, a dark undershirt, black stockings, button shoes, rubbers and a black cape, trimmed with silk. She wore a plain gold band ring and pearl set breastpin. The coroner is investigating the case.

SHEDS HIS SKIN ONCE A YEAR

Omaha Market Gardeners Remarkable Experience.

Omaha, Neb., July 13.—An evening paper prints a verified story of a man who sheds his skin once a year. He is a market gardener, S. O. Buskirk, employed on a patch near Florence, a suburb of Omaha. Every summer the skin on his hands and feet begins to loosen and harden, while the skin of his body flakes off and an entire new skin appears.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. DELIA CONLEY

SHE HAD SUFFERED FROM HEART TROUBLE FOR YEARS

Daughter Gertrude Found Her Mother Lying Dead on the Floor of the Dining Room Late Yesterday Afternoon—Funeral Services from St. Patrick's Church Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. Delia Conley, wife of James H. Conley, died yesterday at her home 355 South High street, about four thirty o'clock yesterday afternoon of heart failure. Mrs. Conley had been a sufferer with heart trouble for a number of years.

Mrs. Conley was alone in the house at the time of the attack. She was discovered a few moments later by her daughter Gertrude, who was playing with some friends in the park opposite the house. She noticed her mother had gone into the house and went over home to see if she wanted anything as her mother was subject to sinking spells and often needed assistance. On going into the house she discovered her mother lying on the floor of the dining room. She ran out of doors and gave the alarm to her girl companions who soon called kind neighbors to her assistance.

Dr. St. John and Dean McGinnity were called, but could do nothing to help the case. Dr. St. John said that Mrs. Conley must have been dead before she struck the floor. There was a bruise on the bridge of the nose caused by coming in contact with something as she fell. She had evidently felt the attack coming on and had tried to reach the door, either to get fresh air or to call her daughter.

Mrs. Conley was born in Rhode Island thirty nine years ago, and was married to James H. Conley May 31, 1883. She leaves a loving husband, two sons and a daughter to mourn her sudden taking away. The funeral services will be held from St. Patrick's church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

GREATER NEW YORK 3,650,000

Census Experts Base an Estimate on the Work of Enumerators.

New York, July 13.—The last name for the census of Greater New York has been sent to Washington. The enumeration of millions is completed and the work of tabulation is already well forward. The population of Greater New York will officially be made public on Aug. 15.

Unofficially, the census experts, guided by the figures and the work of the enumerators estimate that New York's population is now 3,650,000 in round numbers.

The board of health estimates made the population of the greater city 3,550, 058 on July 1. Manhattan's population is 1,958,569, Bronx 1,63,537, Brooklyn 1,231,548, Queens, 134,139 and Richmond 67,260.

New York is the first large city in the Union to send its complete census reports to Washington. The last book was sent to Washington yesterday. On Saturday the clerks in the local office will finish their work.

COLLECTION OF COINS STOLEN

Exhibit in Public Museum, Milwaukee, Valued at $800 Missing.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 13.—The collection of rare coins on exhibition in the public museum in the Library Building was stolen some time last night. The supposition of Custodian Nehrling is that the coins were taken by some thief who secreted himself in the museum yesterday afternoon and remained there until the doors were locked.

The collection taken is valued at $800. The nucleus of the collection was presented to the museum years ago by the Natural History society of the city and since then it has been added to continually. It embraced many rare Greek and Roman coins and their loss is irreplaceable.

There were between 1,500 and 2,000 coins in the collection. A list of them is in the museum, together with minutes of their denominations and dates and if traced this will serve to identify many of them.

He Was Very Accommodating.

Appropos of the ready comprehension and native wit attributed to the sons of Erin, Patrick's compliance with the customer's wish stands out in bold opposition. Patrick was a clerk in a suburban grocery store. It was a busy season and the grocer was waiting up on two or three customers at the same time. He was in a hurry, and everything had to be where he could get it without much trouble or he would be delayed and probably lose money, so when he found that the pound weight was gone he was bothered.

"Patrick," he called out, "where's the pound weight?"

"The pound weight, is it?" said Patrick complacently. "Sure, an it's Mister Jones has the pound weight."

"Ah, Mister Jones has it? What do you mean by saying that Mr. Jones has the pound weight? I thought the pound weight said in the store. How did Mr. Jones get it?"

"An shure, didn't yez tell me to be perlitte to the regular customers?"

"Of course."

"Well, thin, Mister Jones comes into the store for a pound of tay. An, says he, when I asked him what quality of tay he would have. 'Whatever yez give me,' says he, 'give me the weight.' So I put the pound weight in the package with the tay, perlitte like, an it's himself that's gone with it."—Chicago Post.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT AT CHICAGO, AUG. 26

There is every reason to believe that the Thirty-fourth National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which occurs in Chicago from August 26 to September 1, will be the most largely attended affair of the kind ever held in the United States; and Chicago is making provisions and arrangements with this thought in mind. It has raised nearly $100,000 to defray the general expenses of the encampment. A court of honor with magnificent triumphal arches will be erected on Michigan avenue at a cost of $25,000.

There will be reunions, camp fires and parades. The big parade of the Grand Army occurring on Tuesday, August 28. VARDON DEFEATS WILL SMITH

English Golfer Makes Good in Match at Midlothian.

Chicago, July 13.—Harry Vardon, in the venacular, made good yesterday. In the last of his three engagements at the Midlothian Country club he defeated open champion Will Smith in their thirty-six hole match by 4 up and 2 to play. Twice defeated in combination games and criticised to some extent for his reverses, he demonstrated that playing a lone hand he is still something of a golfing Robin Hood. He improves on acquaintance, passing on successive days from positive to comparative and superlative.

His exhibition yesterday has never been excelled in this country and in saying this due credit must be given to genial open champion Will Smith whose fine work undoubtedly nerved the Britisher to the things he did. Smith set a racehorse pace and Vardon a little more than kept up with him.

A glance at the scores is all that is necessary to indicate the high quality of the golf displayed by the contestants. Vardon with two 39s in the morning and two 38s in the afternoon and Smith with two 39s in the morning and a 40 and 42 in the afternoon is a sufficient commentary. Vardon's total of 76 in the afternoon equals Smith's record for the course.

CHINA'S GRAND OLD MAN

Li Hung Chang's Views on the Chinese Crisis.

FOREIGN INFLUENCES NOT WANTED

The Civilized World Warned by the Greatest Chinese Statesman That China Cannot and Shall Not Be Disembodied—His Simple Manner of Living at Home.

(Copyright, 1900, by W. R. Hearst.)

Li Hung Chang, the most powerful statesman in China and one of the most important men in the world today, has expressed his views on the present Chinese crisis for the New York Sunday Journal. One thing he makes clear is that the Chinese will fight hard against the partition of their country by foreigners. The representative to whom Li Hung Chang gave his ideas was M. Eugene Wolff, the well known explorer. He was passing through Canton with a well known French physician whom Li asked to examine his sick grandchild.

M. Wolff found Li Hung Chang living in a small wooden house situated in one of the least fashionable quarters of Canton. At the entrance a door-keeper was sleeping behind a green wooden screen such as we see in ordinary American barrooms. A porcelain vase filled with high grass stood at each side of the main portals. High grass keeps evil spirits away from the house.

A courtyard paved with red bricks and about 25 feet in length by 12 broad led to the reception room. This, too, proved to be a very ordinary apartment. Instead of paintings there were three unframed paper pictures hanging on the wall. On the mantel or what served for one was a perfume lamp between two thin candlesticks. The furniture, a round table, four chairs, three easy chairs and a small sofa, also two footstools, were old and partly covered with faded green plush. The frames were of mahogany.

The floor was covered with matting, and from the ceiling hung a cage containing canary birds. To complete the picture of affected poverty the week's wash was swinging from lines drawn along the outside gallery of the apartment. In such mean surroundings lives China's greatest statesman, her Cressus of Cressuses, owner of every foot of railway and telegraph line in the empire, owner of the richest mines, the most powerful banks, of limitless domains and coolies without number. They say that Rothschild would die with envy if he knew the extent of Li's wealth, yet to contradict the accusations of his enemies the viceroy lives like a small merchant, spending his declining days in modest comfort after working hard for a competency.

Li Hung Chang entered the reception room after M. Wolff, leaning on the shoulders of a tall manservant. He was dressed in a tunic of yellowish white linen, with a belt of the same kind held together by a white metal clasp. His mauve colored silk pantaloons were fastened over white woolen stockings by black ribbons. He wore black velvet half shoes with felt soles. Here are the great viceroy's words:

"The powers regard China as a pie from which they intend to cut themselves slices according to whim and appetite. Big guns give no title for the possession of a country. The will of the people is that title. The Chinese, remember that, want to remain Chinese. Our views on life differ as much from yours as heaven and earth. In our country the individual man lives and works for his family; in your country he lives and works for the state.

"Because we are essentially a family loving people we detest war and are frightened at the prospect of any change that may take a man out of his proper sphere, from his home, from the ground he tills.

"We have troubles of our own. We have an ample sufficiency of them and don't want any social question in China. Can you blame us for that? In the countries of the great powers, and the small powers, too, the social question is the nucleus of the most far-reaching troubles that confront the governing classes. In all the European empires the social question predominates. I ask you, can you honestly advise us to burden ourselves with such an octopus simply because it is the fashion?

"You complain that we are averse to foreign influences, but forget that at the very beginning of our intercourse with civilization 20,000 Chinese settlers were murdered on the island of Luzon in one week. The Spaniards did that, and I assure you this massacre encouraged us in no way to open our doors to you 'civilizers.' Why should you regard us as 'savages' anyhow? You throw up to us the murder of white men within our borders. Is murder unknown in Europe and America? You speak of the persecution of Christians. Well, let us assume that a couple of hundred of our Buddhists went to your country to convert your people and to preach, for instance, that unless they want to be eternally damned they must refuse to submit to compulsory army service merely because the new religion they have imposed upon them says so.

"Your missionaries ask our people every day in the year to break the laws of this country and to refrain from obeying the laws. As to the persecution of Christians, our government has never engaged in any nor encouraged any. Christians have been killed just as Chinese are killed in San Francisco, New York, in the Dutch West Indies and where not? We employ no missionaries, no proselyte makers of any kind. We are not proud, but we are too smart to prescribe to anybody the fashion in which he should pray to God. We never asked a living being to worship as we do. One of the most pernicious and dangerous of your idiosyncrasies is to ask and force people to subscribe to a certain mode of worship. We never do that.

"You charge us with being double tongued, with playing you false in the matter of politics. What are you doing? One great nation after the other comes along and with a knife at our throat wants to rob us. As long as we feel the point of the steel we say, of course, what you want us to say, but when the danger is over we conveniently forget all about the incident. That has been the fashion in diplomacy from time immemorial. It's done in all countries. Here is one example of many: By the peace of Frankfurt the republic of France ceded Alsace-Lorraine to Germany. If she were strong enough today to reconquer these provinces, would she respect her contract? It's the same thing with the provinces which Europe took away from us. There is only one redeeming thing about it; the envy with which the powers regard each other saves us from being victimized to a greater extent, for you hate each other more than we hate you.

"You criticize our sullen attitude. Do you expect us to make love to you because you robbed us? Ah, we know your programme well enough. The north for Russia, a good part of the south and central China for England, the rest for France and Germany—so it has been planned. We are to retain nothing; everything for the foreigners, nothing for the Chinese. But one can't do away with 500,000,000 people by a stroke of sleight of hand. It may not be very difficult to defeat us, but to conquer us will be a hard job, I assure you. It's like eating a real Chinese meal. A courageous European or American may tackle it, but I doubt that he will digest it.

"Your envy, your incapacity in preying upon each other—we play them against you. We disgorge what we have to disgorge, even such things that you promised by treaty never to ask us to give up. We do all this, but at the same time we see to it that Great Britain, which is stronger than all the rest of you, forbids you to go too far. International politics are based on fear and the apprehension of threats. Doubtless you know a great deal, but you have no idea of the limitless energy which China, her people, her emperors and all of us are capable of."

DESECRATION OF GRAVES.

Peculiar Sanctity of Burial Places Described by Wu Ting Fang.

A proposal was put forward to desecrate Chinese graves on a large scale by way of exacting vengeance owing to the peculiar sanctity attached by the Chinese to their burial places. How strong is this feeling is expressed by the Chinese minister at Washington, Wu Ting Fang, in an article contributed by him for a recent number of Collier's Weekly. He writes:

"The choice of a burying ground is considered a matter of great importance in China. A class of people who have great influence there are the 'geomancers,' whose function it is to decide whether a place is lucky for a burying ground or for building a house. Rich people spend a great deal of time and money in going about selecting burial places for their dead. Sometimes they spend years in their search. When a lucky place is found, the geomancer may say, 'If you bury your father here, you will be rich yourself before you die.' It is commonly believed that any good luck in the life of a person comes as a reward for burying his parents or grandparents in the right spot.

"It sometimes happens that the parents die before the lucky spot is found, and in that case a little house is hastily constructed and the body given a temporary resting place there. No greater crime is known in China than that of desecrating a graveyard. Because graves are found everywhere in China the first railroad built there had to follow a very circuitous route in order to avoid them. It is better when people are poor for railroads to pay them to move their graves. If the people are rich and money is no consideration, it is wiser to change the route of a railroad than to rouse the wrath of the people.

"The graves of the dead are carefully tended by the living. Every year at about Easter time men of all classes over the empire ask leave to go and visit their graves. They take with them votive candles and firecrackers, meat and wine. A libation of wine is poured on the ground, and the spirit of the dead rests satisfied."

SENDING GOLDFISH TO PARIS

Large Fishery in Indiana Supplying Them for the Government.

One of the largest goldfish fisheries in the United States is located in Shelby county, Ind., two miles from St. Paul. Its owners have completed arrangements with the government for supplying all kinds of goldfish for the United States exhibits at the Paris exposition, says a Butler (Ind.) dispatch to the New York Journal. Large farms are devoted to their culture, and one farm of 160 acres has 34 ponds 15 by 60 feet in which the many species are housed and reared for the market.

There are three well known specimens of the goldfish, the Japanese telescope, Japanese fantails and the common goldfish. Their prices range from 35 to 50 cents for the telescopes, 25 to 40 cents for the fantails and 10 to 25 cents for the common, retail prices.

From this gold fishery 60,000 fish were shipped to all the principal cities of the United States and Europe last year.

Unpleasant Check to the British.

The defeat of the British at Nitral's Nek, as told in Gen. Roberts' dispatch to the war office, is an unpleasant check to the recently growing optimism regarding the end of the war in South Africa. The correspondents have been for days predicting the end, declaring that Gen. De Wet and President Steyn were cornered, and that their capture or surrender was imminent. The occupation of Bethlehem by the British seemed to justify this view, and it was believed that Commandant General Botha and the Transvaal were prepared to accept the inevitable as soon as the Free State Boers collapsed. Gen. Botha's operations have evidently, however, been developing over a wide area, leading to the belief that he is perhaps aiming to make good the threat to recapture Pretoria. At any rate the Boer activity promises to make considerable trouble for Gen. Roberts, and their success at Nitral's Nek will doubtless give heart to the fighting burghers and lead them to prolong the struggle.

Boers Destroying Railways.

It is concurrently reported from Greylingstad that Gen. Clery found it necessary to retire to that place from Viakfontein owing to the great activity of the Boers in destroying the railway and telegraphs between Greylingstad and Standerton. The newspapers here express considerable disappointment over the turn affairs have taken.

English Die of Disease.

A war office list reports thirty deaths from disease among the troops in South Africa. Troopers W. B. McDougal, Alexander McArthur and G. A. S. Sparkes, wounded, and Sergeant Alfred Stringer and Trooper Collin J. Isbister, unwounded, were captured by the Boers near Standerton on July 5. Corporal T. Mills Shoemsmith, J. J. Griffiths and Privates T. Simpson, R. Bourne, H. Gilroy and Fred Norris were reported missing near Greylingstad, July 5. All the above named belonged to Strathcona's horse. Lieut. F. V. Young, of the Canadian mounted infantry, received a slight scalp wound at Wit Klip July 8. Private W. Winyard, of the Canadian mounted infantry, was reported missing July 4. It is believed he is dead.

House Dynamited; Boy Killed.

Williamsburg, Ohio, July 13.—The three-room frame house of Henry Wilson was blown up with dynamite, and badly wrecked. Wilson's son, William, aged 10, was instantly killed. Mrs. Katie Tucker, an aunt, with whom the boy was sleeping, escaped with painful injuries. The dynamite was exploded directly under the room in which they slept and nearly directly under their bed. Wilson was at a neighbor's house at the time. He and his wife are separated. She makes her home five miles away. Mrs. Tucker, who has been acting as Wilson's housekeeper, is also separated from her husband. There is no clew to the identity of the perpetrators.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Smith's Pharmacy, next to postoffice. Kodak agents.

Young Matrons

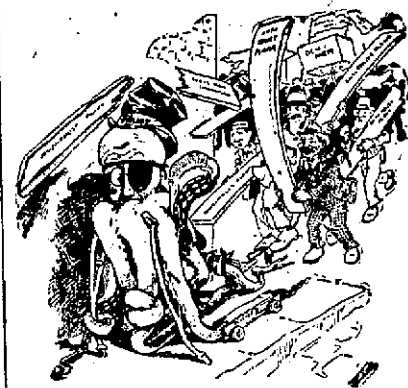

Who preserve the charms of face and figure in spite of an increasing family and the care of growing children are always to be envied. As a preservative of health and beauty Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been hailed by women as "a God-send" to their sex. It gives the strength and health upon which happy motherhood depends. It practically does away with the pains of maternity. It enables the mother to nourish the infant life depending on her, and enjoy the hourly happiness of watching the development of a perfectly healthy child.

Mrs. Orrin Stiles, of Downing, Dunn Co., Wis., writes: "I have been intending to write you ever since my baby was born in regard to what your 'Favorite Prescription' has done for me. I cannot praise it enough, for I have not been as well for five years as I now am. In July last I had a baby boy, weight 11 pounds, and I was only sick a short time, and since I got up have not had one sick day. I have not had any internal trouble since I got up. I was not only surprised myself but all of my friends here are surprised to see me so well."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, every woman's friend, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers, or 31 stamps in cloth binding, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1776—John Jay, "Signer" for Rhode Island, died in Providence; born 1707.
1793—Marat, the terrorist, was assassinated by Charlotte Corday. Marat was one of the most sanguinary of the Jacobins. With Danton and Robespierre he planned the destruction of the Girondists and when cut down by the heroines was preparing a list of victims to be sacrificed to the common weal.

1822—Modern battle of Thermopylae early in the Greek war of independence.

1860—General John Charles Fremont, explorer, soldier and Republican presidential candidate in 1856, died in New York; born in Georgia 1813.

1864—George R. Graham, founder of Graham's Magazine, died at Orange, N. J.

RENOMINATE MR. WHITEHEAD.

The Madison State Journal says:

The next session of the legislature will be eventful, and John M. Whitehead should surely be there in the senate. Those parts of Rock and Jefferson counties that make up the 2nd district are no doubt proud of their member.

The Journal tells the truth. Rock and Jefferson counties are proud of Senator Whitehead's record, and he will doubtless be nominated without opposition. His legislative record is of the very best, and his worth is recognized all over the state, as was clearly shown by the many flattering assurances of support that came to him during the gubernatorial canvass.

"Senator Stebbins," says a Milwaukee dispatch, "said he would get more votes than some people thought he would, but just where they are coming from the politicians are trying to find out." For what office, Senator? You certainly do not expect the instructed La Follette delegations to vote for your nomination for governor?

The Forest Park Improvement company realize a handsome profit from its venture, yet the company's profit was not more than that received by the city. Every public improvement adds to the general welfare, and public spirited citizens merit the support of everyone in any enterprise that will help the town.

The Chicago common council will insert in all future traction franchises, a clause compelling the company and its employees to submit their differences to a board of arbitration. This is a new idea, but what will be accomplished thereby is a matter of conjecture.

The National Telephone and Telegraph company have been organized in New Jersey with a capital of fifty million dollars. It is the intention to buy up all the telephone and telegraph lines in the country. Talk won't be cheap under this monopoly.

Ferdie Peck is a real patriot. Congress called him to account because of the expense of the United States commission at the Paris Exposition and Ferdie now announces that the salaries of all employees will be cut from 10 to 30 per cent!

The day of the bicycle as a pleasure vehicle has passed. The Milwaukee L. A. W. meet was a total failure and the frost thereon was more blighting than that which fell upon the Janesville meet last year.

The silver republicans, the populists and the democrats have joined forces in Nebraska, but there are evidences that the state will go republican in spite of the fact that it is Bryan's home state, and the antis have gotten together.

The Milwaukee papers can now go back in their files and apply some of the things they said about the Janesville bicycle meet to the Milwaukee frost.

*But won't.

Brodhead Register—And now Senator J. M. Whitehead has withdrawn leaving the field practically clear for Hon. R. M. LaFollette, of Madison. Whoop la!

President McKinley now knows that he was renominated last month. The committee told him about it yesterday at his home in Canton.

Gov. Roosevelt's campaign will be opened at Oyster Bay, and democracy will be served on the half shell.

Some tall stories are sent out from Shanghai these days.

DEBT TO PROTECTION.

National Prosperity Due to Patriotic Legislation.

It is the custom of an old time free trade democrat who closes his eyes and understands the evidence of our commercial and industrial life, the direct outgrowth and result of our national protective policy, to deplore the old days of our foreign ocean trade and to talk nostalgically of glorious free trade times, when lefty square rigged ships lay at the city's pier, forgetting in the meantime to consider the fleets of coastwise steamships that leave our great port every day and the enormous number of three and four masted schooners engaged the same way. In those days if an American wanted a watch, piano or a roll of carpet he sent to Europe for it. He does not have to go beyond his own country nowadays for a better and cheaper article.

What must such an old fossil think of the recent launching at Wyandotte, Mich., of a freight steamer to ply on the great lakes of the mighty west, a country which has had its development since 1861? This ship is built for a western company and is of 8,000 tons burden. She is 478 feet long, 50 feet wide and 28 feet deep and is at present the largest boat, if she can be so called, on the lakes.

Twenty-five years ago, with the exception of the Great Eastern, there was no merchant ship or steamer built of this enormous capacity or size, and as to the old sailing vessels of antebellum days, a 2,500 tonner was a wonder. America did not get to be rich because the skies are any binner or the climate better than many countries of the old world, but legislation born of patriotism and wisdom, having for its object the upholding of the American workman, free and equal, under the constitution, not a chattel slave, is to be credited for our national prosperity.—Brooklyn Times.

PROSPERITY INDICATOR.

Enormous Increase of Railroad Business Since 1895.

The following official statement concerning the railroads of the United States for the years ending June 30, 1895 and 1899, is instructive:

	1895.	1899.
Number employees..	755,034	925,924
Total yearly wages..	$445,503,201	$622,967,596
Tons of freight carried	699,761,171	959,763,633
Tons carried per mile	65,227,515,801	123,067,257,153
Total gross earnings.	$1,075,371,402	$1,313,610,118

In this branch of American industry alone there has been an increase of 144,000 people employed since the last Democratic administration and an annual increase of nearly $77,500,000 in wages paid. Almost the whole of it was additional money expended in purchasing the products of our farms and factories.

The increase of 263,000,000 tons of freight carried by the roads gives an idea of the extent that business has been improved.

Under the new financial law the net savings of the government on the refunding provision were $7,268,818 up to June 1. Applications for bonds with a capital of less than $50,000 numbered 264. With a capital of $50,000 and over there were 72 applications.

During seven months ending Jan. 31 imports at Porto Rico amounted to $3,210,119, of which $268,754 came from the United States.

The direct cost of the war with Spain, including appropriations for the next 12 months, has amounted to $524,000,000. What country in the world ever made a better investment?

The Ice Trust and the Tariff.

The effect of the tariff in building up trusts is painfully and severely obvious in the case of the Tammany ice trust of New York city and way stations. While the native ice of Cuba, the Philippines and Porto Rico is allowed to rot under the trees from which it drops when ripe and cannot be profitably exported to this country owing to the tariff, the home combination between Tammany promoters and a few Maine men who grow the American article is enabled to put up prices and export in a single season fortunes for its officials wrung from the people, who must have ice at any price or go without! Were the native ice of the tropics allowed to flow in an unrestricted flood into this country from our new possessions Mayor Van Wyck would be unable to bulldoze the public any longer, and even Mr. Bryan might now and then get a 5 cent chunk to wear in his hat. This terrible tariff must come down.—Bridgeport (Conn.) Standard.

"Mythical" Prosperity.

The money devil in Kansas has raised the wages of harvest workers to $3 a day, and the farmers want more help than they can get at that price. But we suppose Mr. Bryan, as soon as he unmuzzles himself, will explain that this prosperity is "mythical."—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Ampleton Times.

Uncle Silas—Humph. It's campaign year, and I hain't had any peripatetic documents sent ter me yet.

Aunt Serena—Well, that's queer. Four years ago the country was goin to ruin a bull month earlier in the season than this!—Puck.

A LONDON TRIUMPH.

The Author of "Smoking Flax" Meets With Social Success Abroad.

Not satisfied with her remarkable success in the literary field, Miss Hallie Erminie Rives, the talented southern novelist, has gone abroad and achieved social triumphs. Miss Rives is one of the American favorites of the present London season, perhaps the leading one. Doors at which ambitious American women have often knocked in vain have swung open to the charming Kentuckian who writes such fascinating stories.

Mrs. James Brown Potter has Miss Rives in charge. On the day of the author's arrival in London the actress telegraphed her to join a party for the Oaks at Epsom. Miss Rives missed connections and although she had never been in England before started out for Epsom alone in a pouring rain. There were 30,000 persons at the race, and to find so notable a being as Mrs. Brown Potter in such a crowd was like looking for a needle in a haystack. But Miss Rives managed to do it, although, as the actress exclaimed when she greeted her friend, no one but an American girl could have succeeded in such a forlorn enterprise.

Gallant Sir Thomas Lipton was one of Miss Rives' first callers. One of the pleasant features of her visit to London was the yachting party which the noted yachtman gave in her honor. Many notable Londoners were present.

Miss Rives has been the guest of Mrs. Potter at Burlington House, St. John's Wood, London, and at her country house on the Thames. Lord Londonderry, postmaster general of Great Britain, and Sir George Murray have also entertained her. Miss Rives, Lady Randolph Churchill and Mrs. Potter were in charge of the "American bar" at the fair given under the patronage of the queen in aid of the wounded soldiers in South Africa.

While at the races at the Grand Prix in Paris the author met without unpleasant adventure. She occupied a seat on a coach beside President Loubet's box. A Frenchman seeing that she wore at her belt a miniature of England's war hero, Baden-Powell, which was given to her by the colonel's family in London, sprang up on the wheel during the excitement of the last race and tore it off. Her smart gown was utterly ruined in the struggle.

At present Miss Rives is the guest of the Countess of Warwick at her castle. The author has just completed a new novel of apparently a rather sensational character. It bears the title of "A Furnace of Earth" and will be brought out in the fall by the Camelot company, New York. Miss Rives is in London to arrange for its publication simultaneously in England. She says London has the appearance of being milled, but she likes the town none the less for that. She is the latest American author to win that social success in London which the American girl calmly takes as her right.

ETHEL DE VERE.

NOTES OF WOMAN'S WORK.

A young woman who believes herself the reincarnation of Plato is arousing wonder among less inspired people by her remarkable knowledge of Socrates, Plato, Kant and Schopenhauer, whose works she has never read.

Miss Marguerite Cassini, the niece of the Russian ambassador at Washington, with whom originated the idea of the Fencing club, which has just been inaugurated in that city, says the reason that Russian women are such magnificent specimens of womanhood is that they are imbued with the health argument from earliest childhood and that their lives are regulated to conform with health principles.

The National Patriotic society, which is now forming for the relief of American sailors and soldiers, was the idea of Mrs. Richard Henry Savage, the wife of the novelist. Mrs. Savage is a Russian by birth, a Washingtonian by adoption and a New Yorker by preference. She is wholly American in thought and feeling.

Miss Virginia D. Young of South Carolina is the only woman in the world who runs a newspaper on which not a single man is employed in any capacity. Even the traditional "devil" has been banished in favor of nice little office girls in white aprons. The editress of this novel paper claims that her office is the cleanest of its kind in the world. The only freak feature of the paper is that the first four columns of each edition are devoted to a love story.

Miss Alice Serber appeared in the west side police court of New York recently and announced her intention of practicing criminal law in that court. The magistrate received Miss Serber cordially and expressed himself pleased to see that the Russians would henceforth be represented by a woman of their own nationality. Miss Serber is a graduate of the New York University law school.

APPRAISE VALUE OF LAND TAKEN

AWARDS MADE TO REAL ESTATE OWNERS AND TENANTS

The Commissioners Appointed by Judge Duwiddie Filed Their Report This Morning Making Awards for Lands Taken by the Janesville & South-eastern Railroad.

Commissioners George Barker, J. R. Helmer and Robert Pollock, appointed by Judge B. F. Duwiddie to appraise the value of lands taken by the Janesville & Southeastern railroad, through the town of La Prairie, over the value of which there was a dispute, filed their report of the amount awarded to the different parties, with the clerk of the circuit court yesterday afternoon. The amounts awarded are as follows:

Everson estate	$3,000
Tenant on farm	100
Weatherall estate	1,925
Tenant	175
Terry estate	3,500
Whipple estate	2,900
Tenant	75
Chesbro estate	1,700
Tenant	32
Yonans estate	344
Total	$13,754

In some cases the award is above what the railroad company might have settled for. They still have the right to appeal from the award of commissioners.

DOCTORS AND LAWYERS

Most Exciting Game of Base Ball Will be Played at Athletic Park Tomorrow Afternoon.

The most exciting ball game of the season will take place tomorrow afternoon at Athletic park. The lawyers of Janesville have an idea that they can play ball, so issued a challenge to the members of the other professions in the city to play them a game.

Their challenge was immediately accepted by the doctors and dentists and tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the question will be settled. The doctors think that in Gibson and Eddon they have a battery that will put the lawyers out of the game in the first inning. The lawyers are equally confident that if the doctors will leave their instruments and medicines at home they will be but one side left at the finish, when Earle and Dunn, the battery for the lawyers, get through with them.

In order that all disputes may be settled peacefully they have secured Edward F. Carpenter, at a great expense, to umpire the game. No admission will be charged and every one is invited to attend the contest.

GOLF AT LAKE GENEVA

Some Local Enthusiasts Are Likely to Go To See Harry Vardon Play Tomorrow Afternoon.

Some of the Janesville golf enthusiasts are thinking of visiting Lake Geneva tomorrow for the purpose of witnessing the match between Harry Vardon, the celebrated English golfer, and the best ball of Walter Egan, the club professional player. The match takes place over the Lake Geneva Clubs course tomorrow afternoon and is likely to be a close contest, as both of the Geneva players are of the first class.

GOLF PLAY AT LAKE DELAVAN

The Railroad Track Furnishes a Hazard for the Course

Lake Delavan, Wis., July 13.—Golf has finally captured Lake Delavan. Efforts have been made for some time to lay out a course here, this resort being the only one of importance at which the game has not been organized. The movers in the matter are the Phillips brothers, who own some of the most beautiful land on the lake. Of this they have turned over a tract large enough for a nine-hole course, with a railroad track for a hazard, immediately adjoining Lake Lawn. All of the paraphernalia is now on the ground and playing has commenced. Among the leaders in the game are C. J. Sumner, Washington, D. C.; James G. Darling, Evanston, Ill.; Robert H. Nott and the Misses Nott, Davenport, Iowa; T. E. Diamond, Chicago.

BAPTIST CONVENTION IS OPEN

Large Attendance at the Young People's Union Meeting in Cincinnati

Cincinnati, O., July 13.—The tenth annual convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America held its first session last night in Musichall, with a large attendance. President John C. Chapman called the convention to order. The address of welcome from the Baptists of Cincinnati was delivered by Rev. Warren G. Partridge of the Ninth Street Baptist church. Col. William B. Melish extended a welcome on the part of the citizens. D. A. Gaylord, St. Louis, president of the board of managers, responded. President Chapman then announced the various committees, after which the Rev. Dr. E. E. Chivers of Chicago read the annual report of the board of managers.

Chicago Drainage Channel Passed Upon By An Engineer

Chicago, Ill., July 13.—Desmond Fitzgerald, chief engineer for the special commission appointed by the governor to examine the Chicago drainage channel has concluded that the required flow can be sent through the Chicago river without danger of destruction to navigation. Engineer Fitzgerald warns Chicago, however, that a rainfall in excess of .079 inches in twenty-four hours, would flood certain portions of Joliet and damage Chicago.

MIGHT HAVE COST HIM HIS LIFE

ACCIDENT ON THE RAILROAD TRESTLE NOW BEING BUILT

James Murphy of the Night Working Force Fell a Distance of 25 Feet Striking on His Back and Right Side—He Was Very Seriously Injured.

James Murphy, one of the night force employed on the new trestle of the Janesville and Southeastern railroad, met with an accident at an early hour this morning that might have cost him his life.

About three o'clock this morning Murphy started to climb down the trestle work at Clarion street and in the darkness missed his hold and fell to the street, a distance of twenty-five feet, striking on his back and right side.

The injured man was picked up immediately and carried to the Janesville Hotel where he boards, and Dr. Joe Whiting, the company's surgeon called to attend him. Dr. Whiting found upon examination of the injured man that the right arm was broken at the wrist and that he had a cut over the right eye, his back was also hurt and he sustained serious internal injuries that would lay him up for some time.

That Murphy was not killed by the fall is a wonder, and he can consider himself fortunate that the injuries are no worse, it was a narrow escape and one that he would not care to repeat.

PICKING OUT A CHAIRMAN

Chairman Treat of Republican Committee Still at Milwaukee

Milwaukee, July 13.—J. B. Treat of Monroe, chairman of the republican state central committee, was still at the Pfister today and will remain there until tomorrow, when he will leave for home. He has been here to make arrangements for the state convention which is to be held in the Exposition building on August 8. As yet he has made no choice of a man for temporary chairman of the convention and says he will not announce the name until he returns to Milwaukee in about two weeks. He desires to give the chairman two weeks' notice in which he can prepare a rattling good speech.

Mr. Treat says he understands the present political situation and will be guided by it, which means that he will select a man who will harmonize all the elements of the party. Mr. Treat says he has but one object in view as state chairman and that is the success of the republican party as a party. No personal prejudices, no ambitions of his own stand in the way of doing this. Mr. Treat says he is not a candidate for any political office whatsoever.

Thomas L. Cleary of Platteville is suggested as a democratic nominee for governor of Wisconsin. He was the permanent chairman of the last democratic state convention which was held in the Alhambra to elect delegates to Kansas City.

MANY KILLED BY EXPLOSION

Burning Gasoline Tank Bursts and Sightseers Are Victims.

THE DISASTER FOLLOWS A FIRE

One Dead and Eight or Ten Supposed to Be Fatally Injured—Most of Those Burned Attracted to the Fire by Mere Curiosity—Harrowing Sight.

Boston, Mass., July 13.—One man is dead, several missing and more than sixty persons bear severe injuries, some of which may be fatal, as the result of the explosion of a tank car filled with gasoline in the Boston and Maine railroad yards in Somerville. A small blaze, started by a spark from a shifting engine, which ignited a piece of oil waste, developed into such a conflagration as few who saw it will ever forget. The explosion, which came before the fire had gained much headway, was terrific, and the people in the entire vicinity were in terror for hours afterward, fearing every moment that another one of the huge oil tanks on the road would blow up.

List of Casualties Incomplete. One death and fatal injury to three persons has been recorded so far. The firemen are still unable to prosecute a search for the bodies of the persons believed to have been overwhelmed by the fast-spreading flames.

Known to be dead are: Haydon, Joseph, a Somerville fireman; terribly burned; died on way to a hospital. The fatally injured: Callahan, John J., freight conductor, 39 Linwood street, burned on head, unconscious and sinking rapidly; Forrest, Robert J., train hand, Joy street, Somerville, badly burned about face, breast and hands, cannot recover; Ward, William F., 22 Knowlton street, Somerville, spectator, burned about the face, head and shoulders, dying. The property loss is estimated at $50,000. The fire started at 9:25 and first attacked the truck of a large oil tank car. Near this was another tank car and every one of the twenty-five tracks in the yard was crowded with cars full of freight.

Explosion When Crowd Is Near

An immense crowd soon gathered to see the sight, which was as imposing as one as only burning oil makes. Thousands perched themselves on the box-cars as near the fire as they could get. Suddenly the truck gave way, the tank dropped and then there was a terrible explosion. Men dropped on all sides, even those over 500 feet away. There were groans of agony and pain. Persons who were standing on the freight cars in the vicinity were bowled over like tenpins. A stream of burning oil was blown up the tracks, and it ignited everything in its path. Then came calls for ambulances, and the wounded many of them horribly so, were taken to drug stores and hospitals. It was an awful sight for a while and the worst of the affair was the conviction that nearly a dozen lives had been lost and that the bodies were under the burning cars. It was impossible to verify this, however, as it was feared every moment that the second oil tank would blow up, as the first had done. The force of the heat from the explosion blistered cars 500 yards away. The explosion lit up the entire heavens for a moment and the reflection could be seen for miles.

Awful Effects of the Bursting

The aftermath was terrible. Groans arose on all sides. The clothes of many boys and men had almost been torn off them by the force of the concussion. The blazing oil poured up the tracks and attacked all of the other cars, which were loaded, and the spectators were driven from the scene in confusion and in all directions. One man got so excited that he stabbed another, John Leach, in the back. The latter was treated, as was fifteen others, at a nearby drug store. In the meantime ambulances were called from Somerville and Boston hospitals and from the police stations. They poured in from all directions. Thirteen of the injured were taken to the Somerville hospital, while a score of others limped and struggled to their homes in the vicinity.

WERE EATEN BY CANNIBALS.

Businessmen Captured, Tortured and Roasted Alive.

Victoria, B. C., July 13.—Businessmen from Cape Oxford, according to a letter received by the Mowera from Sydney, were killed and eaten by cannibals on the coast of New Britain.

The German government is taking steps to punish the cannibals.

The natives who were made victims had been trading, and when they got to the landing the canoes they were in were fired on and at once sunk. Many were killed and their bodies carried ashore.

But the most horrifying part was when several men were captured alive and dragged to the actual scene of the feast their bodies were to provide.

They were clubbed and afterwards roasted or baked and eaten. The tribe of native ghouls is one of the most notorious in the islands for man-eating. They are not head-hunters in the Solomon islands sense of the term, but bloodthirsty Kanakas, who kill for food only.

The victims were not all killed at once, some of them witnessing the killing of their comrades and the first part of the cannibal feast.

Believes in Army Canteen

Washington, July 13.—Army officers are gratified at the discovery of a new champion in their fight for the preservation of the army canteen. The Rev. James S. Hamlin, pastor of the Church of the Covenant on Connecticut avenue, in the fashionable section of Washington, in an address before soldiers at Fort Myer, near Arlington, Va., in discussing the canteen, said: "I am a trustee of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, but speak now as an individual, as the society is not allowed to interfere with anything pertaining to governmental regulations. No doubt some members of the society are opposed to the canteen and some are in favor of it. I believe the canteen is a promoter of temperance, but does not promote total abstinence, and is a great improvement over previous conditions. I do not think the canteen is perfect and I think I could improve upon it. It has improved the conditions of the soldiers morally and materially. Under existing conditions at many posts I believe the canteen is a good thing and a great benefit to the soldiers."

Blood Troubles:

Cancer, Scrofula, Old Sores, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Chronic Ulcers.

As the blood contains all the elements necessary to sustain life, it is important that it be kept free of all impurities, or it becomes a source of disease, poisoning instead of nourishing the body, and loss of health is sure to follow. Some poisons enter the blood from without, through the skin by absorption, or in the system and ferment, allowing disease germs to develop and be taken into the circulation. While all blood troubles have one common origin, each has some peculiarity to distinguish it from the other. Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Cancer, Rheumatism, Eczema and other blood diseases can be distinguished by a certain sore, ulcer, eruption or inflammation appearing on the skin. Every blood disease shows sooner or later on the outside and on the weakest part of the body, or where it finds the least resistance. Many mistake the sore or outward sign for the real disease, and attempt a cure by the use of salves, liniments and other external applications. Valuable time is lost and no permanent benefit derived from such treatment.

BLOOD TROUBLES REQUIRE BLOOD REMEDIES; the poison must be completely and permanently eradicated—the blood reinforced, purified and cleansed, or the disease goes deeper and saps the very life. Mercury, potash and arsenic, the treatment usually prescribed in this class of diseases, are violent poisons, even when taken in small doses—never cure, but do much harm by adding another poison to the already overburdened, diseased blood.

SSS

S. S. S., Nature's own remedy, made of roots and herbs, attacks the disease in the blood, antidotes and forces out all impurities, makes weak, thin blood rich, strong and healthy, and at the same time builds up the general health. S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the only one that can reach deep-seated blood troubles. A record of 50 years of successful cures proves it to be a reliable, unfailing specific for all blood and skin troubles.

Free Medical Treatment.—Our Medical Department is in charge of skilled physicians, who have made blood and skin diseases a life study, so if you have Contagious Blood Poison, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Eczema, an Old Sore or Ulcer, or any similar blood trouble, write them fully for advice about your case. All correspondence is conducted in strictest confidence. We make no charge for this service. Book on blood and skin diseases free.

MEN AND PRINCIPLES

MCKINLEY AND ROOSEVELT, THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES.

A Ticket Nominated Unanimously For the First Time in History and a Platform That Epitomizes Grand Results Accomplished.

The candidates placed before the people of the United States by the Republican national convention on the 21st of June occupy a unique position in the history of American politics. Both were nominated without a single dissenting vote. No parallel to this unanimity of thought and action is to be found in the records of national conventions in this country. Both candidates would have been nominated by acclamation did not the time-honored rule require the formality of a ballot.

The reason for this remarkable accord in the choosing of the Republican presidential ticket for the campaign of 1900 is not far to seek. In the case of President McKinley a renomination was a foregone conclusion almost from the moment he took the oath of office on the 4th of March, 1897. This certainty was only made more certain by a chain of events which served to show how wisely the people chose in the election of 1896 and to foreshadow the popular demand that was to make itself felt with regard to a second term. Just as William McKinley was the logical candidate of his party at a time when his country was suffering the pangs of bankruptcy and ruin as the result of running after false guides so was William McKinley the logical, the inevitable candidate of his party at a time when his great mission of restoring prosperity stood accomplished and when new and trying problems growing out of unprecedented and difficult conditions required for their safe solution the same clear brain and the same lofty statesmanship that served the country so well in its time of trial. Hence there was and could be no candidate other than William McKinley.

Equally patent and potent reasons impelled the unanimous nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as candidate for vice president. No other man considered in connection with that office so filled the public eye and the public mind. Civilian and soldier, citizen and man, student and ranchman, scholar and rough rider, his character, his name and his record appealed irresistibly to American appreciation of brains, energy and pluck.

McKinley and Roosevelt, a wonderful combination of abilities and qualities! Match them if you can.

With nothing to be ashamed of, nothing to apologize for, nothing to defend, the platform makers of the Republican national convention found an easy task set before them. But easy tasks are not always so well performed as was the case in the framing of this platform. It is a platform at once sound and sensible, truthful and courageous, assertive and aggressive, positive and unmistakable. As an epitome of one of the most brilliant, most notable and most successful periods of governmental administration in our country's history the platform is clear, concise, convincing, in all ways admirable. Briefly outlined its salient features are these:

Unqualified indorsement of the administration of President McKinley.

Adherence to the principles of sound money and a 100 cent dollar.

Condemnation of commercial combinations and conspiracies which restrict business.

Reaffirmation of the policy of protection to American labor and industry.

Reciprocity with foreign countries in noncompetitive products.

Restoration of the immigration of cheap foreign labor.

Restoration of the American merchant marine.

Grateful appreciation of the splendid services of American soldiers and sailors and a liberal pension policy befitting such appreciation.

No discrimination on account of race or color.

Statehood for New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.

Reduction of war taxes.

An isthmian canal and an open door in China.

Reform of the consular service.

Person and property of every citizen must be protected.

Monroe doctrine reaffirmed.

Tender of good offices to end the war in South Africa approved.

Restoration of order and establishment of self government in the Philippines.

Pledge of independence to Cuba repeated.

This is a platform of principles brought down to date, a platform which every American citizen can and ought to adopt as his own.

Hard to Match.

The Republican platform makes a strong point when it says that "while during the whole period of 107 years from 1790 to 1897 there was an excess of exports over imports of only $283,026,497, there has been in the short three years of the present Republican administration an excess of exports over imports of $1,453,738,094." It would be hard to match that prosperity item.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Increase in Sheep Value.

Farmers should remember that sheep in Ohio were worth just $2 a head more on the first day of this year than they were worth on the first day of January, 1895. The increase in the value of sheep under this Republican administration was about the same in all the states of the country.

Southerners Shouldn't Forget.

Southern voters should remember that more new factories have sprung up in the south since the Dingley tariff became a law than were erected in that section for years previously.

Gentlemen:—I must say in regard to GRAIN-O that there is nothing better or healthier. We have used it for years. My brother was a great coffee drinker. He was taken sick and the doctor said coffee was the cause of it, and told us to use GRAIN-O. We got a package but did not like it at first, but now would not be without it. My brother has been well ever since we started to use it. Yours truly,
